

I am opposed to the FCC permitting more consolidation of media ownership. Fewer companies owning more TV or radio or newspaper outlets will narrow the range of ideas being discussed and suppress what diversity of opinion remains in the public discourse. At the minimum the FCC should delay making any decision about this important issue until more public comment can be obtained. Susanne Pinkham